

Class Plan

1

National Taiwan University of Science and Technology
Teaching and Learning Center — Summer Intensive English Program

“Daily English” — 5-week program — Week 4 — Day 5

Pages 41 through 42

Materials

- Hemispheres 1 book
- Slides: My Fave Klivan
Cartoons

Objectives

- Show off my Klivan cartoons
- Finish “Simple Past” stories.
- Finish conversations, using
1) Determiners, 2) Possessive Pronouns, and 3) three of the chapter idioms (p.39).
- A Chapter 5 listening exercise
on P.42-B

Class Content

Finish “Simple Past” stories.

Warm up/preps for new conversations.

Do conversations.

Do Chapter 5, p42, listening exercise

HOMEWORK?...

Audioscript

Angela: Bill, your apartment looks so nice. I love all your lamps!

Bill: Thanks, Angela. My collection keeps growing. Did you see my new palm tree lamp?

Angela: That's so cool!

Bill: Thanks. And look at these UFO lamps that I got on the Internet. Aren't they great?

Angela: Oh, I love those! How do you find so many great lamps?

Bill: Well, I look on the Internet every day. You know, e-Bay and Craigslist, and other websites.

Angela: You get all these lamps on the Internet?

Bill: No, just some of them. I got that pineapple lamp on Craigslist. But I bought that palm tree lamp at the flea market. I go to flea markets once a week. I like shopping outdoors, and they have a lot of bargains! Stuff is so cheap at the flea markets around here . . .

Angela: What about thrift stores?

Bill: They're OK. About twice a month I go to thrift stores and check out their lamps. And I go to the mall a lot. There's this cool lamp store there. See that lamp made out of rocks? I got that there.

Angela: No way! You got that at the mall? Is that where you got this elephant lamp?

Bill: No, I got that at the flea market. But do you see that tall lamp made out of a bicycle seat?

Angela: Yeah.

Bill: I got that at the mall, too.

Angela: I had no idea the mall had such funky stuff. What about catalogs? Do you look at those?

Bill: No, I hardly ever look at catalogs. I don't have time!