Audioscript

Daniel: I saw an ad on the Internet. This woman named Lakshmi, in Chicago, wanted to sell her stamp collection. I offered to buy it for $700, but she turned me down. She didn’t want to give up her stamps—especially the ones from her father. So I offered to buy the other stamps in her collection. You know, I offered to just buy some of the stamps. This time, she didn’t turn me down! I paid her $500, and Lakshmi sent me some of her stamps. And she sent a picture she took with her new camera! I’m so happy with my new stamps—they’re really cool!
